

UNSTUCK: AN OCD KIDS MOVIE

Join us for a community screening of this inspiring documentary about six kids and their journey through OCD.

The San Francisco Bay Area Center for Cognitive Therapy (SFBACCT) is pleased to announce an upcoming free screening of “Unstuck: An OCD Kids Movie”. This incredible short film features unique stories of how six different children suffering with OCD learned to face their fears and take back their lives.

Following the screening of “Unstuck”, SFBACCT pediatric OCD specialists will hold a Q&A and discussion. This event is appropriate for parents of kids with OCD who want to learn more, ask questions, or simply be inspired. Please note that this event is for adults only.

For more information about the film, visit www.ocdkidsmovie.com
For more information about our center, visit www.sfbacct.com

Space for this event is limited and registration is required. To register, email sfbacct@gmail.com and use “unstuck” in the subject line.

Saturday, April 21st

12:00-1:00

San Francisco Bay Area Center for Cognitive Therapy

5435 College Ave.
Oakland, CA

Free

Space is Limited;
RSVP required

Register at sfbacct@gmail.com